THE HAMBURG APPLE MARKET

The market for American apples at the Hamburg auction on Thursday, April 12, 1928 showed no change from the preceding week, according to a cable to the Foreign Service of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics from Mr. Edwin Smith, the Department's Fruit Specialist in Europe.

Australian apples in good condition generally brought between $2.92 and $4.87 per box. Dunn's Seedlings, however, in good condition ranged from $4.38 to $5.60.

This is the last cabled report on the Continental apple markets for the 1927-28 season.
